FEDERAL COURT ENDS;

TERRITORIAL COURT OPENS.
The recent session of Federal court, which opened last Monday, was adjourned today, all cases being continued until next term and the petit jury discharged. The term was held without a single trial. The case against Mike Well was the only one to be tried at this term and it was impossible to take it up at this time as Ike Gronsky, the principal witness for the Government could not come from Chicago.

Federal court's adjournment was made until June 4, when will be taken up the case of the U. S. against the Black River Land & Cattle Co. All other cases were continued until the October term, October 24.

The territorial court opened this morning with all officers present, including Judge Wm. H. Pope, Clerk S. I. Roberts, District Attorney L. O. Fullen, Reporter A. L. Hull and Sheriff C. L. Ballard. The morning and part of the afternoon were taken up in getting the grand jury organized and started to work. The instructions were along the lines usually followed by the court and were given with the vigor that is characteristic of Judge Pope.
